'ANDREW' - A levels Dyslexia

Achievement: A Level Media and Film Studies
BA (Hons) in Film Studies at University

Andrew had attained good GCSEs at school but admitted that he struggled, and was aware that his spelling was very poor. He was assessed at Priestley, where it was found that his difficulties were due to dyslexia. He was also assessed for extra time in exams due to his slow writing speed. Weekly study support sessions were set up for Andrew to help him to improve his spelling, essay structure, and expanding his ideas. He also learned how to use Inspiration software to plan assignments. Andrew was a highly committed student who worked with determination towards his goal of a career in film.

Testimonial: 'I couldn't have done it without the support from Priestley.
I can't thank Priestley enough.'

Andrew is currently studying towards an MA in Film Studies
