'TOM' - I.T and Business Aspergers Syndrome

Achievements: BTEC National Certificate ICT (Merit)
A level Business

Tom came to Priestley with good GCSEs. He had been given support at school, and was anxious that his support would be continued at college. As he found it difficult to take in information and to write notes, he was provided with a note-taker in class. He also had additional support sessions to help with getting his ideas down on paper and expanding points. Over the course of his time in college, his skills developed and his confidence grew. He achieved his A level Business and a well deserved Merit in his National Certificate in ICT.

Testimonial: 'I feel I have really made progress'

Tom is now at university studying Business
